

No. ED/KEA/Press Note/2026

Date: 24-02-2026

ANNOUNCEMENT: If any information provided in the CET-2026 application is found to be incorrect, applicants will be given an opportunity to make corrections even after the final date for submitting the application.

“Candidates who have already submitted the application for CET-2026 are advised to carefully verify that all the information entered in their application form is accurate. If any errors are found, they may log in to their account and make the necessary corrections. Please note that only the information in the final submitted application will be saved on the server”.

Editing is allowed even after the last date for filing the application for CET-2026, but a new application for CET-2026 will not be possible. Therefore, candidates in consultation with their parents should provide correct information before 30-03-2026.

For the attention of Scheduled Caste candidates applying for CET-2026

(Regarding entering the RD number with internal reservation details by 30-03-2026)

Scheduled Caste candidates applying for CET-2026 have already been advised to obtain the caste certificate with internal reservation details printed (Category-A, Category-B and Category-C) from the concerned Tahsildar and then enter the RD number of the said caste certificate in the online application for CET-2026.

However, it has come to the notice of the KEA, that some Scheduled Caste candidates are entering the RD number of the caste certificate that they had obtained earlier, i.e., without internal reservation details printed, in the CET 2026 application.

Therefore, Scheduled Caste candidates to obtain the certificates with RD number printed as Category-A, Category-B and Category-C from the jurisdictional Tahsildar and for the benefit the candidates, “application editing” portal will be enabled upto 30-03-2026 to enter the RD number.

Only candidates who have entered the RD number will be considered for the allotment of seats for the respective category. (RD number must be mentioned in the online application)

(Approved by Executive Director)

Administrative Officer.